IMF Mission Team here to advise

(Honiara 27.01.16) - International Monetary Fund (IMF) Mission Chief of Solomon Islands and Chief of the Small States Unit (SSU) Ms. Patricia Tumbarello arrived in Honiara this week with her team.

Ms. Tumbarello is currently holding discussions with the Prime Minister Office (PMO) and Central Bank Governor Mr. Denton Rarawa over the 2016 Article IV for Consultations and Review of the Extended Credit Facility frame work that the Solomon Islands advisors have with the IMF.

“We are here to assess the macroeconomic situation and advise the government as macroeconomic advisors on how to lock in progress made in the previous year” Tumbarello said.

“We also want to present how the global economic outlook will affect Solomon Islands overall economy.”

A full press release over the findings of the IMF mission to Solomon Islands will be published next week.
